

BED BUGS

What you should do before a treatment

- This depends entirely on your situation. A technician will visit before the treatment to assess the situation and will advise of any requirements then.

Please note: the homeowner must be home on the day of treatment so that items can be washed after they are checked and so rooms can be quarantined etc.